

Walt Whitman

LETTER TO W. S. KENNEDY

Camden noon Sept. 26 '90

Am getting along ab't as usual--
some nice oysters (with a bit of lemon)
for my breakfast--

cloudy & wet inclined to chilly to-day here--was out in wheel-chair last evn'g.

I enclose my Preface note ab't O'Connor
for the new book of his tales-- written off hand,--

Col. Ingersoll is to speak anent of L of G & c. in Phila. probably last part of coming month (the piece in Trans: rec'd--thanks)-- sold a big book yesterday-- have just lit a little fire in my stove--

Walt Whitman
